

FEATURED

Banner in Lincoln part of group's anti-Trump campaign

Lincoln Journal Star Feb 20, 2017

Betsy Riot, which calls itself a "decentralized neo-suffragette, punk-patriot resistance movement," marked George Washington's birthday Monday by hanging banners from bridges in 10 cities nationwide, including Lincoln.

The large banner on Interstate 180 leading toward downtown says "Impeach Putin's Puppet."

The group chose Presidents Day to highlight the difference between the leadership of George Washington and President Donald Trump.

A banner Monday on a bridge above Interstate 180 says "Impeach Putin's Puppet."