LINCOLN, Neb. (KOLN) -- Lincoln Police are investigating an incident after fake blood was found on Senator Deb Fischer's Lincoln office door. Capt. Morrow with Lincoln Police says a unit was called out to Sen. Fischer's office shortly after 8:30 a.m. on Friday.

Upon arriving, police found the door vandalized with fake blood covering it. They also found a Betsy Riot sticker on the door.

Capt. Morrow says the incident is similar to one that happened on May 6 and says the incidents are likely related.
