

Fake blood smeared on Sen. Sasse's office

By 10/11 News |

Posted: Wed 2:48 PM, Jul 26, 2017

LINCOLN, Neb. (KOLN) -- Lincoln Police are investigating after fake blood was placed on Nebraska Senator Ben Sasse's Lincoln office on Wednesday morning.

The call came into police around 12:40 a.m., when a cleaning crew discovered the fake blood at 1128 Lincoln Mall.

When police arrived, they found a red syrup mixture on the windows and doors of the office.

There was also a Betsy Riot sticker and a note placed on the building. Authorities said the scene is cleaned up and some evidence was gathered for evaluation.

Police added they are checking for surveillance footage of the area, and there are no specific suspects at this time.